Dear Sir,-

I am writing Bishop Fallon this evening to tell him that you have appointed January the 23rd

I feel that it will meet with his approval.
As soon as I receive a reply from him I will let you know.

hate to make this known to you when you were so kind as to gratify us the use of your vacation Hall and set aside a night

do say so that I am sorry. —
With every good wish, Yours,

President Thorne. — I trust you will excuse my not having written to you so soon. I have been very busy getting up a lecture such as he would want to deliver. — My friend J. Bush

Dear Father Burke:

I am sorry that Bishop Fallon is unable to lecture next Tuesday evening. However, the fact that you will not require the Hall does not put us to any inconvenience.
